President's Letter

If you think getting your business publicized in the local media is important, come to the April 22nd meeting of Whatcom Women in Business.

Vanessa Blackburn, editor, Bellingham Business Journal and Hilary Parker, editor, Northwest Business Monthly will join us to talk about working with the local media to make sure we're getting the most visibility possible for our businesses.

Meeting details: Tuesday, April 22nd, 6 pm, Big Fat Fish Company, $20. Please be sure to RSVP to Barbara Sanford's meeting Evite or call her at Launching Success 527-2641 as soon as possible.

Scholarship applications are being accepted through April 30th. If you know of a woman who is interested in applying, the application can be downloaded from www.wwib.org. Questions? Contact Patricia Campbell of Life By Desire, Cindy Grass of AI's I5 RV, or Barbara Sanford of Launching Success.

Looking forward to seeing you all on Tuesday!

Evelyn
